As part of the FAFSA verification process, Itasca Community College is required to have you verify your identity and to reaffirm your Statement of Educational Purpose before financial aid can be disbursed to you. Here is how it works:

The student must appear in person at the Student Services Office (Backes 107) at Itasca Community College to verify his or her identity by presenting an unexpired valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport. Itasca Community College will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated by Itasca Community College with the date it was received and reviewed, and the name of the official at Itasca Community College authorized to receive and review the student's ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the Itasca Community College official, the Statement of Educational Purpose provided below.

Statement of Educational Purpose

*I certify that I, _____ am the individual
