Itasca Community College (ICC) offers a short-term, emergency loan of up to $300 (subject to funds availability) to provide a student with short-term relief to cover urgent and unexpected expenses that occur AFTER the semester has started. These expenses must hinder the student’s ability to meet educational requirements while awaiting financial aid payment for the semester. To apply for this loan, you will need to first meet with your academic advisor/counselor to discuss your situation. Second, you will need to complete the application below and describe, in detail, your need for this loan funding. Applications will be reviewed by the Emergency Loan Committee within two days of application. If approved, you will need to complete a Promissory Note with your advisor/counselor. Upon receipt of the Promissory Note, emergency loan funds will be disbursed via direct deposit or a paper check from the ICC Business Office according to the normal aid disbursement schedule.
