

2007-2008 Verification Worksheet

Dependent Student

Your application has been selected for review in a process called "Verification." Your school will be comparing the information you provided on your financial aid application (FAFSA) with information on this worksheet and 2006 Federal tax returns or other financial documents you are required to submit. (The school cannot consider you for federal aid without these forms.) If corrections are needed, the school will send these electronically for you.
